this edited book considers the main issues and controversies within the current educational context of inclusive education from an international perspective authorities in the field such as norwich kauffman and boyle amongst many other international scholars provide an enticing insight into many of the issues and controversies around inclusive education and whether it is achievable or not we have reached a point in time where inclusive education has been the prevailing doctrine for universal education policies however there are still many challenges facing those working within the inclusive education space with some countries actually becoming less inclusive international and national legislation has continued to move towards inclusive education yet there seems to be many gaps between the philosophy and the principles of inclusive education and systemic practice the book aims to address the current debates surrounding the implementation of inclusive education and also offers insights into the inconsistencies between policies and practices in inclusive environments moreover it analyzes contemporary research evidence on the effectiveness of inclusion and identify directions for future research contributors are kelly ann allen dimitris anastasiou joanna anderson adrian ashman jeanmarie badar christopher boyle jonathan m campbell heather craig leire darretxe julian elliott zuriñe gaintza betty a hallenbeck divya jindal snape marguerite jones james m kauffman george koutsouris fraser lauchlan gerry mac ruairc sofia mavropoulou daniel mays brahm norwich angela page kirsten s railey and federico r waitoller
